

Hi! Thank you for visiting thehomeschooldaily.com ! So glad you were able to find a school tool you can use. Please feel free to use this activity for your own personal use or if you are the main teacher in a coop setting. I provide this free resource to encourage others to homeschool their own.

If you would like to share the file with others, I ask that you share by sending them a link to my website or to the page that hosts the file. Please do not send them a link directly to just the PDF file (the file you are at now).

You may not sell, copy, or alter my files as your own. You may not host my files on your own website without linking them to thehomeschooldaily.com or giving proper attribution to thehomeschooldaily.com .

May you be blessed on your homeschooling journey.

♥ Marie

The Lincoln Penny Reader

The perfect reader for young learners to use when first being introduced to money. You will need to print, cut in half horizontally, and then staple into a book. Happy learning!

The Lincoln Penny

The Lincoln penny was first made in 1909. It is worth one cent.

It was made to honor our 16th president, Abraham Lincoln.

It was the first U.S. coin to have a person's face on it.

The Lincoln penny is made of copper coated zinc.

In 1959, the picture on the back was changed to show the Lincoln Memorial.
