

Community Helpers

Where do they work?
What tools do they use?

Created by Marie @ The Homeschool Daily

Community helpers help others by the jobs they do.

Community helpers use important tools to do their job. They also work at special places.

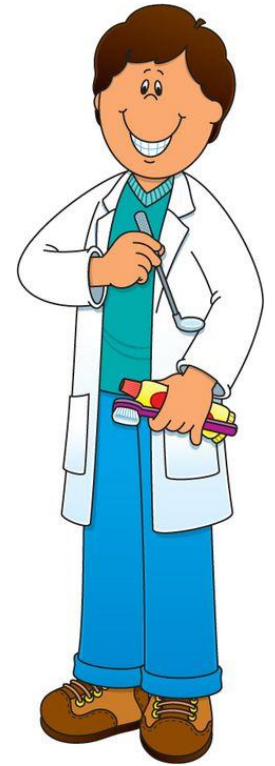

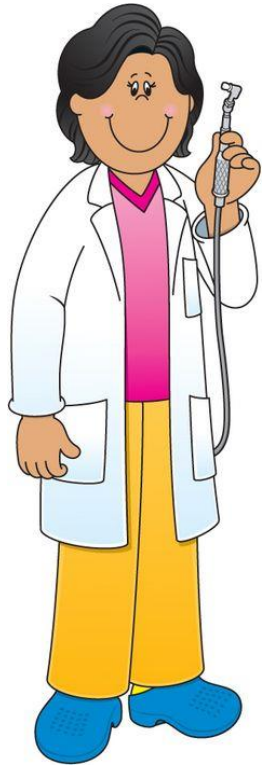

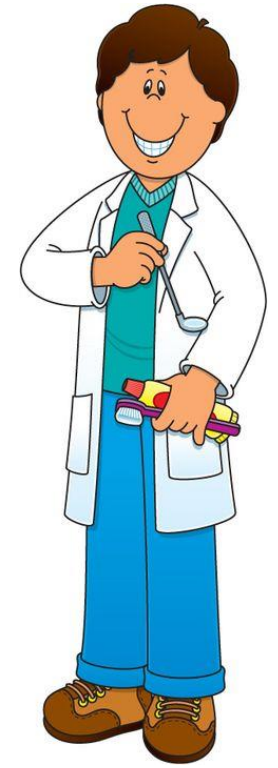

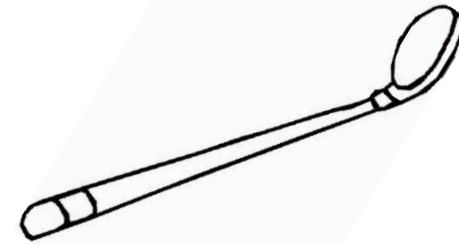

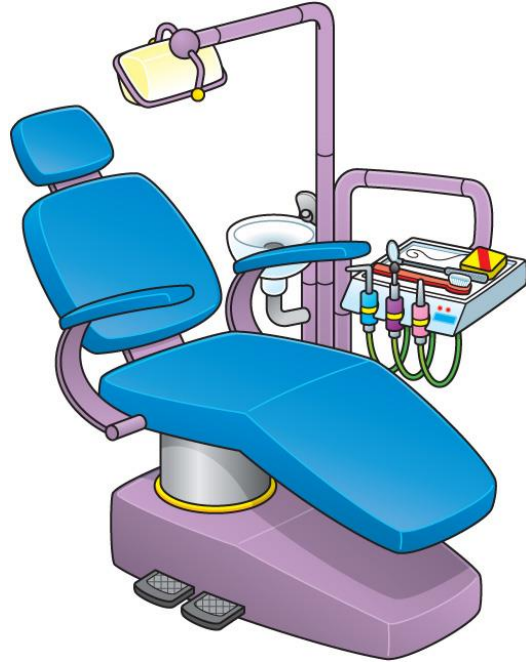

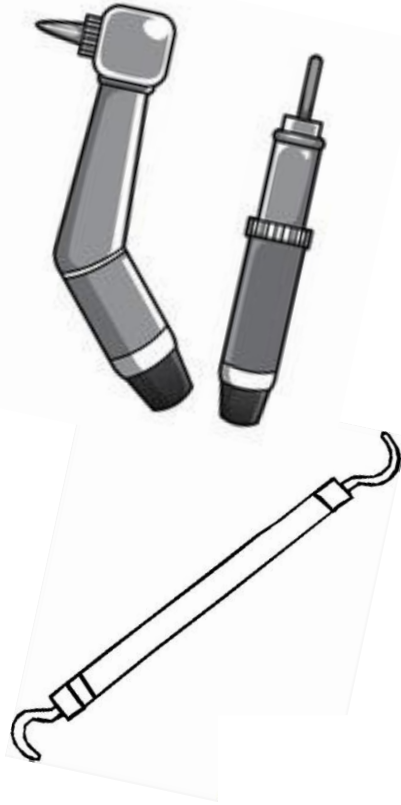

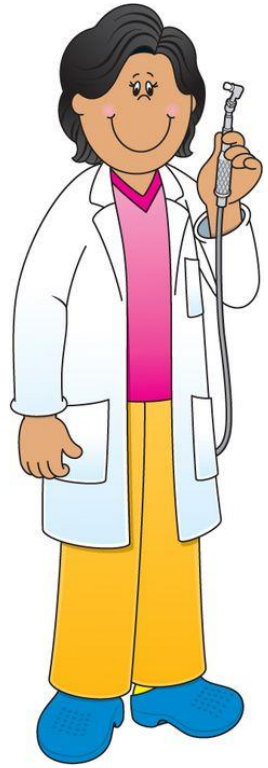

Police officers work at a police station.

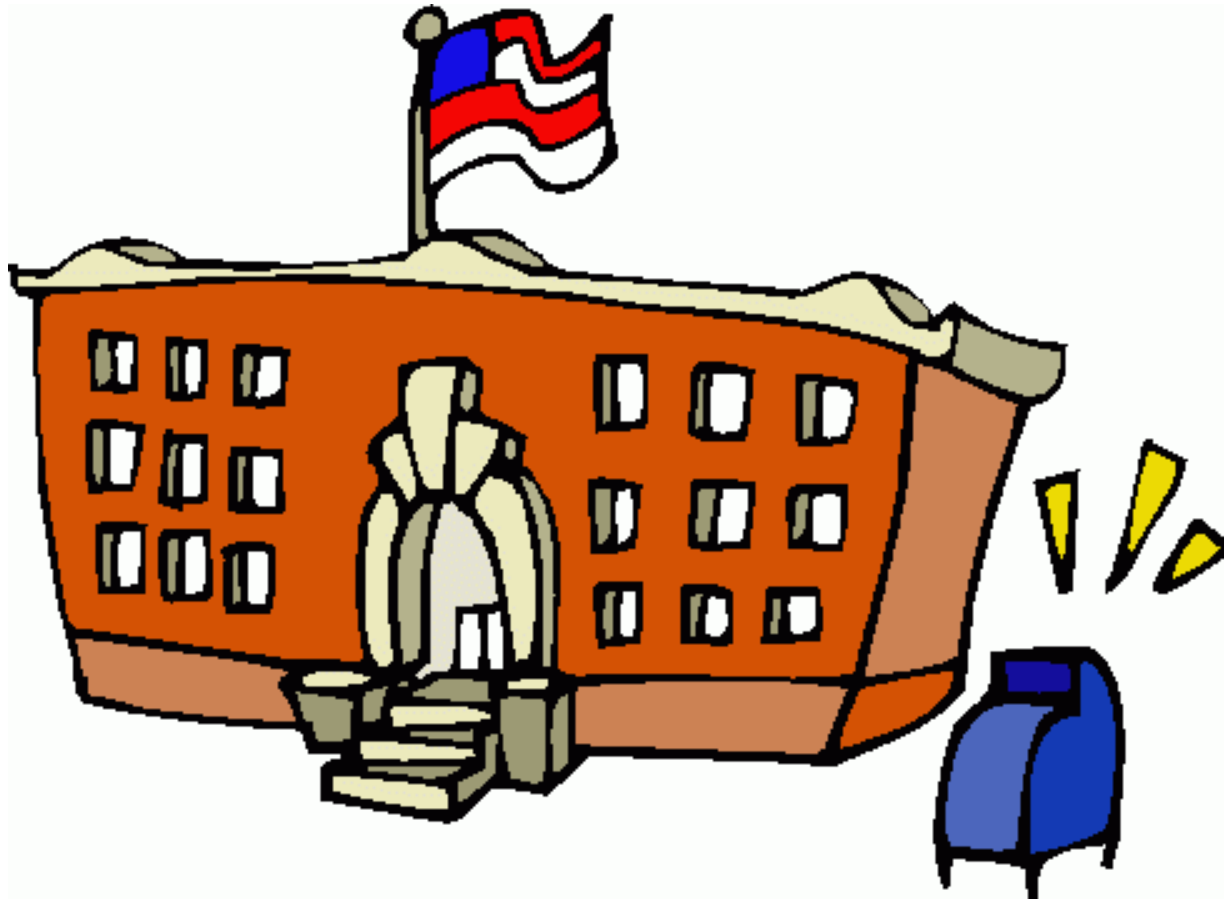

Police officers use a badge, handcuffs, a baton, and a police car to do their job.

Dentists work at a dental office.

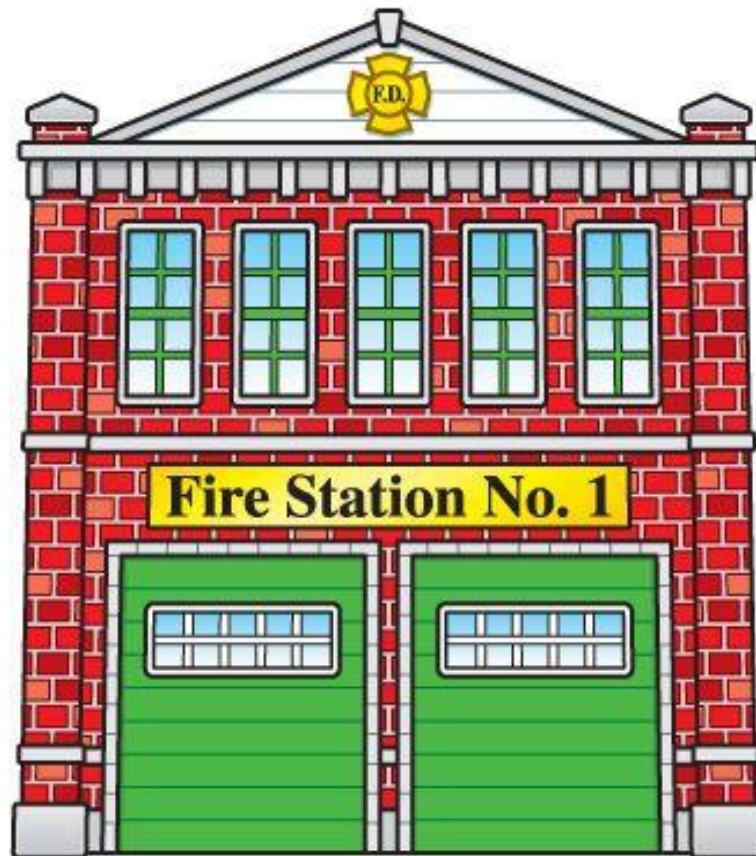

Dentists use a dental chair and dental tools to do their job.

Mail carriers work at the post office.

Mail carriers drive a mail truck. They use stamps, envelopes, and a mail bag to do their job.

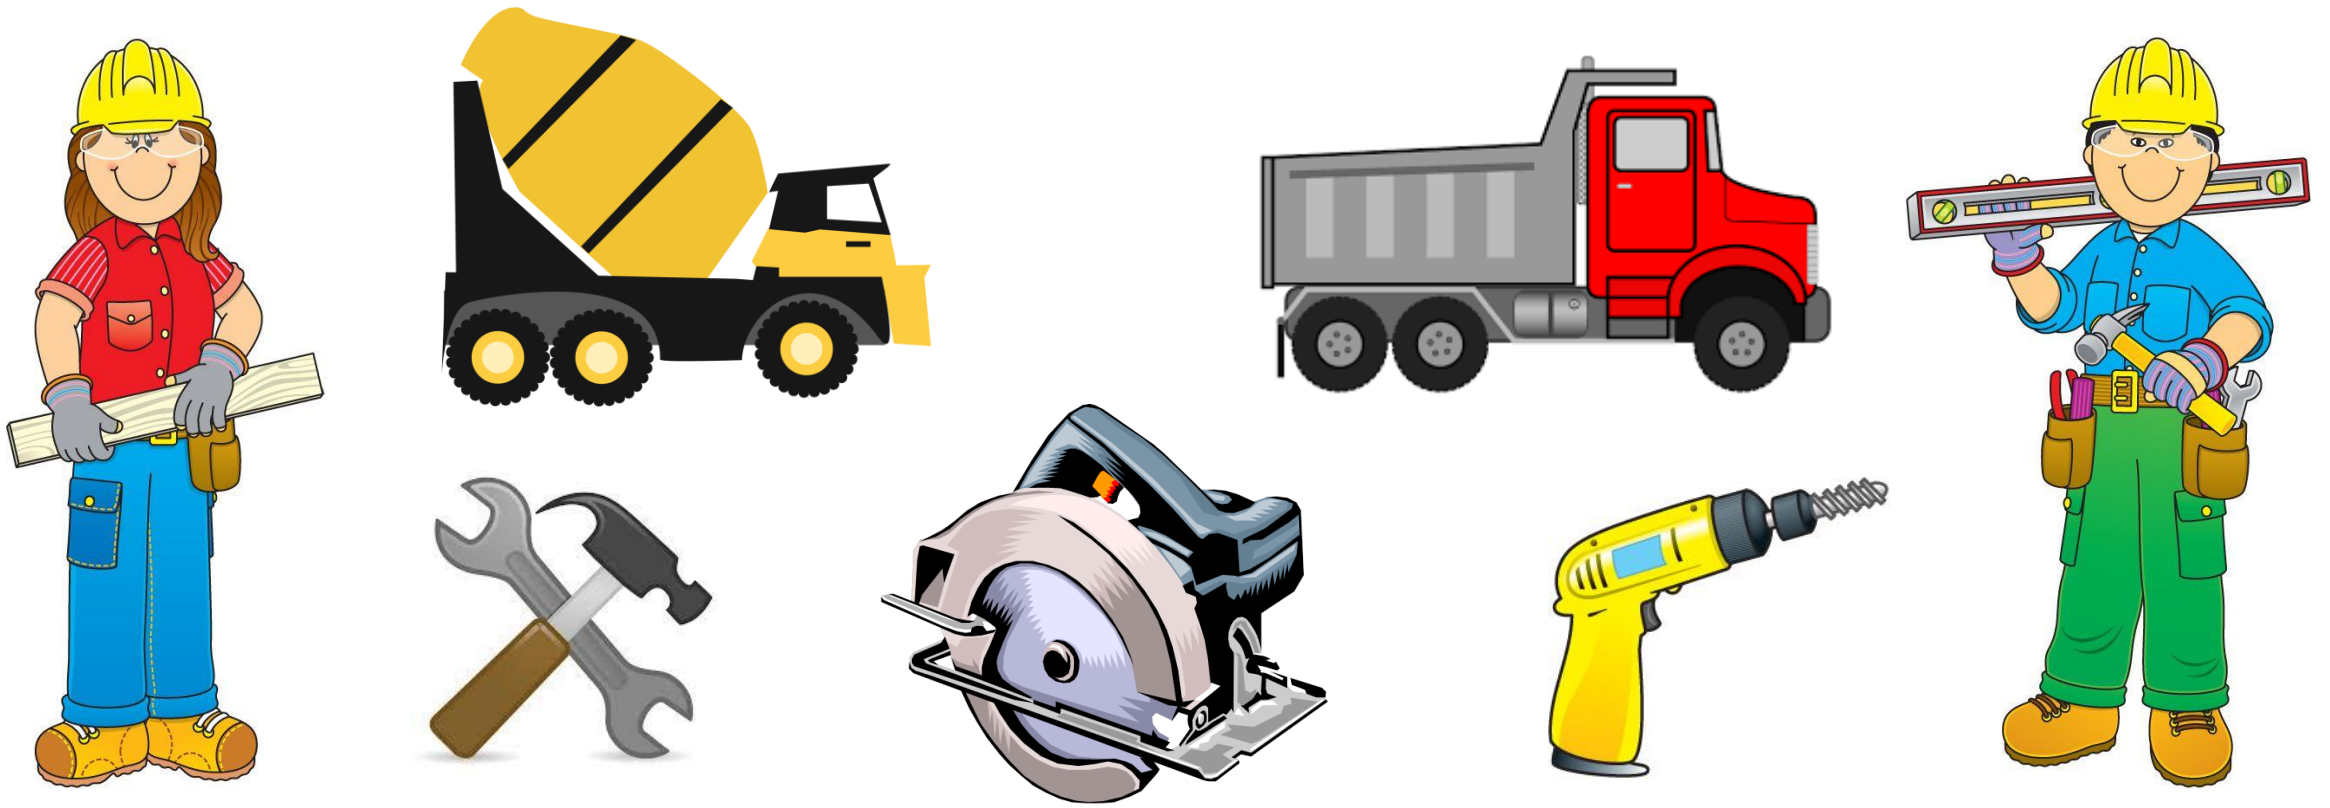

Firefighters work at a fire station.

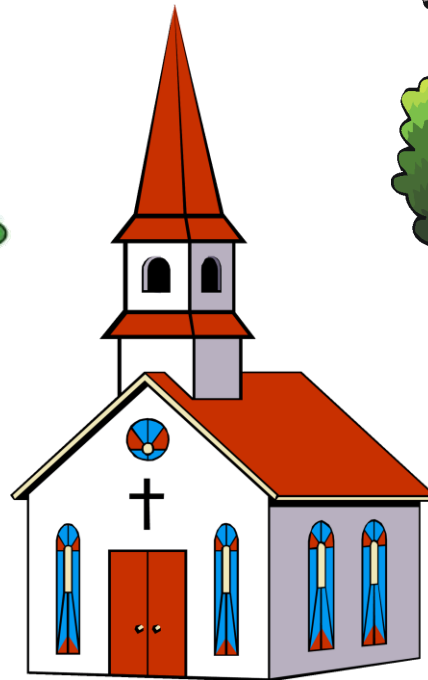

Firefighters drive a fire engine.
They use a hose, ax, and fire extinguisher to do their job.

Construction workers work on construction sites.

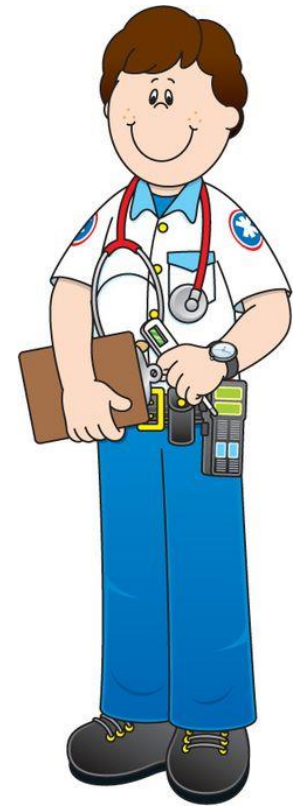

Construction workers use power tools and heavy machinery to do their job.

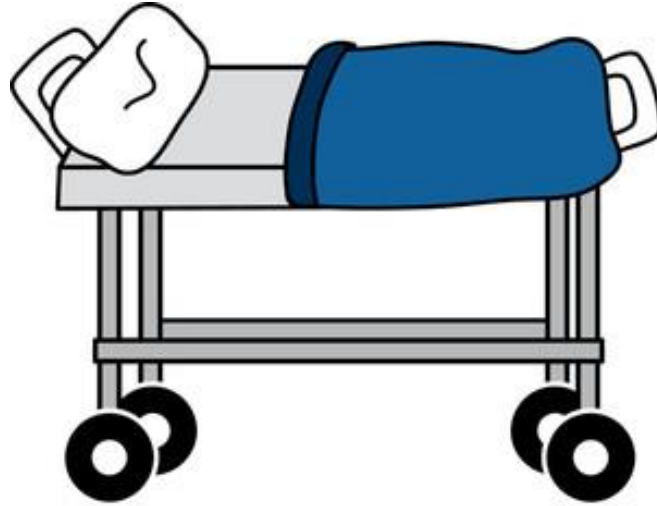

Teachers work in schools,
churches, and homes.

Teachers use books, pencils, whiteboards, and computers to do their job.

Paramedics work in an ambulance.

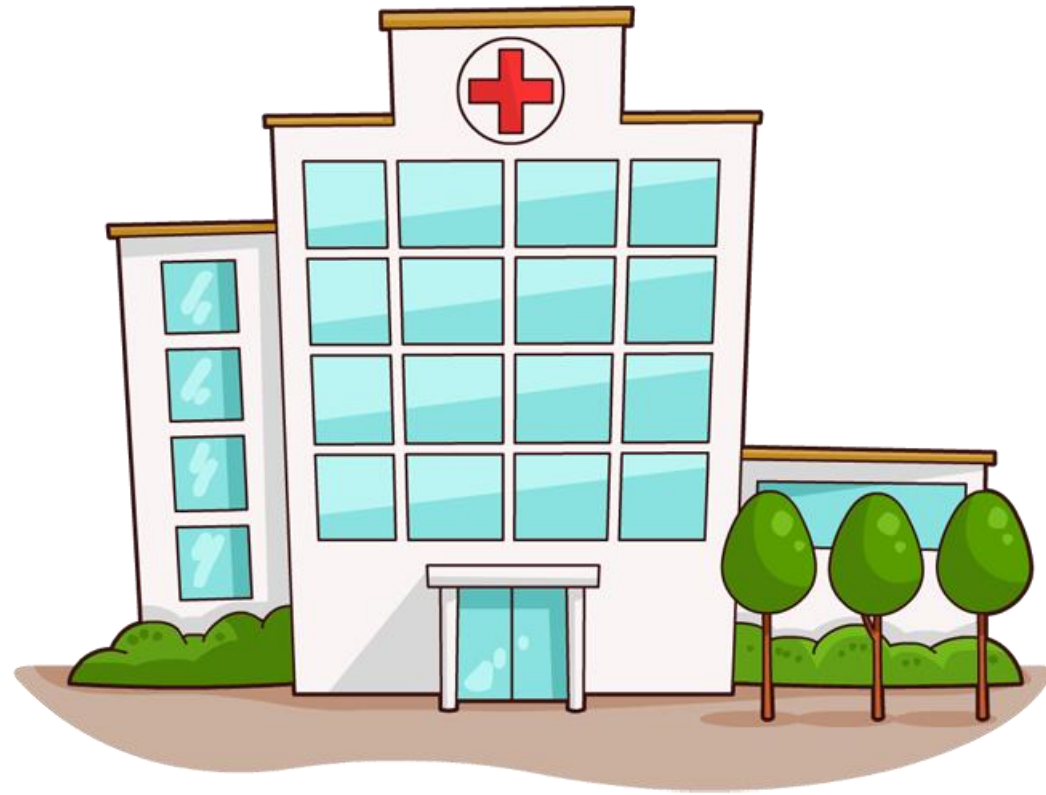

Paramedics use gloves, a gurney, and a first aid kit to do their job.

A chef works in a restaurant or bakery.

A chef uses an oven, mixer, pans, and other kitchen utensils to do their job.

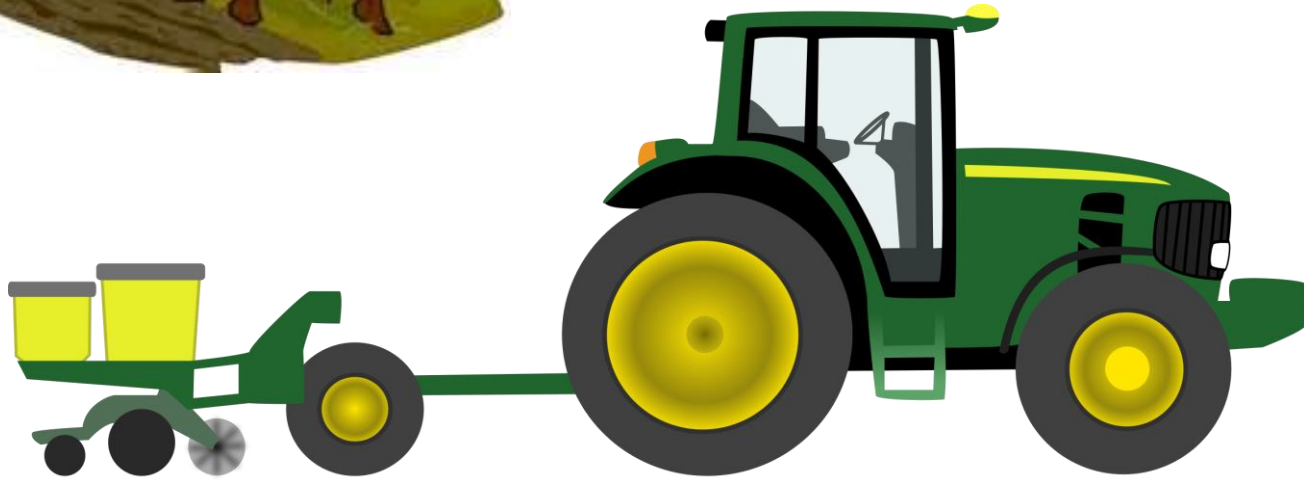

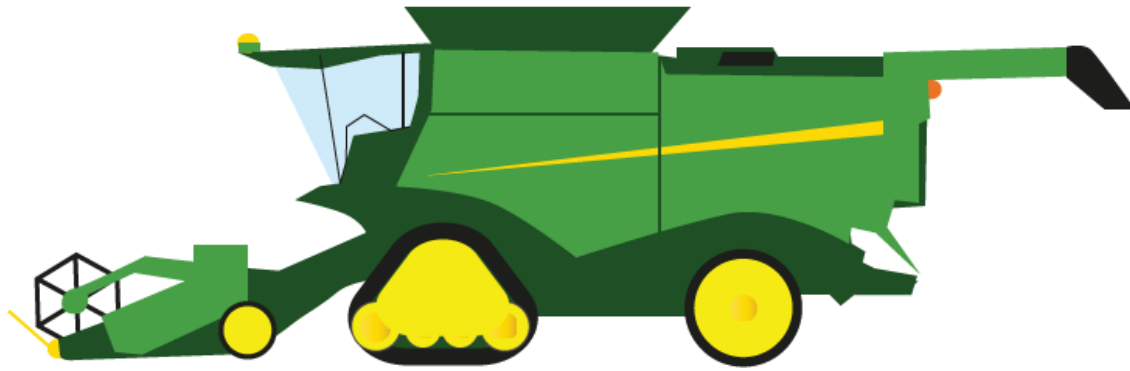

A doctor works in a doctor's office or hospital.

Doctors use a stethoscope, x-rays, and medicine to do their job.

A farmer works on a farm.

Farmers use tractors, plows, and a combine to do their job.

There are many different types of community helpers. Be thankful for those that help you and others. Be kind to them.

Check out our other learning resources @ The Homeschool Daily

Happy Learning!

Commit to the LORD whatever you do, and he will establish your plans. Proverbs 16:3

Check out our unit studies here!

