

Hi! Thank you for visiting thehomeschooldaily.com ! So glad you were able to find a school tool you can use. Please feel free to use this activity for your own personal use or if you are the main teacher in a co-op setting. I provide this free resource to encourage others to homeschool their own.

If you would like to share the file with others, I ask that you share by sending them a link to my website or to the page that hosts the file. Please do not send them a link directly to just the PDF file (the file you are at now).

You may not sell, copy, or alter my files as your own. You may not host my files on your own website without linking them to thehomeschooldaily.com or giving proper attribution to thehomeschooldaily.com .

May you be blessed on your homeschooling journey.

♥ Marie

Life Cycle of a Robin Cards

The Life Cycle of a Robin Cards are a great alternative to the Life Cycle of a Robin graphic organizer. Use these cards as a sequencing activity or use the printout as a poster to show the stages of growth. You may find the last two pages helpful if you are leading multiple children. Being able to print multiple sets of cards at once is useful for a co-op too. Our co-op used these in a Bird Book that we made. The students used the cards to create their own graphic organizer. Since the cards are lined up, it allows for easy cutting and separating. Happy homeschooling!
