

Hi! Thank you for visiting thehomeschooldaily.com ! So glad you were able to find a school tool you can use. Please feel free to use this activity for your own personal use or if you are the main teacher in a coop setting. I provide this free resource to encourage others to homeschool their own.

If you would like to share the file with others, I ask that you share by sending them a link to my website or to the page that hosts the file. Please do not send them a link directly to just the PDF file (the file you are at now).

You may not sell, copy, or alter my files as your own. You may not host my files on your own website without linking them to thehomeschooldaily.com or giving proper attribution to thehomeschooldaily.com .

May you be blessed on your homeschooling journey. Happy learning!

Jesus Washes Disciples' Feet

This activity sheet is an easy hands-on activity. After reading the account of Jesus washing his disciples' feet, take this time to talk more in depth about what his example means for us. Jesus is the example we are to live by. He humbled himself to wash the dirty feet of his friends. This degrading job was left only for the lowest servant in the household. He calls us to treat others as no less or better. He is Lord and we are called to serve and love others as He did. Guide your student to create dirty feet. You may want to use brown paint and cut up pieces of sponge or an old rag. Have your child dirty up their feet. Explain to them that just as the disciples' feet were dirty, so are our hearts with sin. We need Jesus to clean us from our sin just as he washed his disciples' feet clean.

If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 13:14
