

Hi! Thank you for visiting thehomeschooldaily.com ! So glad you were able to find a school tool you can use. Please feel free to use this activity for your own personal use or if you are the main teacher in a coop setting. I provide this free resource to encourage others to homeschool their own.

If you would like to share the file with others, I ask that you share by sending them a link to my website or to the page that hosts the file. Please do not send them a link directly to just the PDF file (the file you are at now).

You may not sell, copy, or alter my files as your own. You may not host my files on your own website without linking them to thehomeschooldaily.com or giving proper attribution to thehomeschooldaily.com .

May you be blessed on your homeschooling journey.

These are my favorite things at Christmas

We used these at the start of a Christmas celebration. They were just the thing. It gave students a means to brainstorm their favorite things at Christmas encourages fellowship and a sense of belonging. We later used it as a ticket for a raffle. It allows students to be actively engaged in an activity during the transition of guests arriving. It is also an effective out of the door ticket. You can ask students to write or draw their favorite things at Christmas. There is a colored and black and white version as well as a full page or half a page option. Merry Christmas!
