Valentine's Day BINGO Game- Class Set

The Valentine's Day BINGO game has a class set of 40 game boards. It is ideal for a large class setting. It can accommodate 40 individual students or up to 80 players when paired together. For game pieces, it is fun to use candy hearts, but when that isn't available, we use cut-up pieces of red and pink construction paper to cover board squares. When one game is done, students can easily clear their boards and start a new game. There are two options for calling cards. The first is a small version that can be cut in and pulled out of a cup. A larger set is also offered that is ideal for larger groups. That way you can visually show them the picture as you describe it. This Valentine's Day BINGO Game is fun and frugal! All you need for a class of 40 is right here! Just print and play! Happy Valentine's Day!
