Chicka Chicka Boom Boom Activity Sheet

This activity is meant to accompany the well-known and popular book by Bill Martin, Jr., Chicka Chicka Boom Boom. I have yet to meet a child who doesn't love this book. The activity sheet is simple. Help your child cut the letters out and then paste them to the tree. To make this a reusable activity, printing the coconut tree on computer paper and the letters on card stock. Laminate all the pieces and then put small pieces of magnets on the back of the letters. Then lay the coconut tree on a cookie sheet and allow the child to put the letters all over the tree. The magnets will stick to the cookie sheet. Whenever your child is done playing, bag up the tree and letters and put them away for another day. Happy learning!
