FOR THE TEACHER...

The “My Thankful Tree” is a sweet activity to complete with your kiddos. In this activity, your student is to cut out leaves from construction paper. On the leaves, they will write things or people that they are thankful for. When they are done writing what they are thankful for, they will glue the leaves onto their Thankful Tree. What a great way to remind our children of all the good things in their life. Sometimes we just need to take a moment and count all our blessings!
